

To generate ideas we put ourselves in a relaxing environment. We had our own original ideas. We got our ideas in class after reading Raymond Calvert's poem "The Ballad of William Bleat". We did a lot of background research on the poem and on Calvert before coming up with our own ideas. We do things we love to come up with creative ideas.

Well usually we can apply the ideas that we come up with but if not we can talk with the teacher. We made it work by ourselves. It took a couple tries but we ended up finishing it early. When you get stuck you can do other things until you think of something

ct

Some of the ideas have been found by others on the internet. Our ideas were interesting and different than one would normally think of. We enjoy essays